PRICE ONE CENT.

FIVE PAGES.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, MAY 16, 1890.

FIVE PAGES.

THE TALENT MOURNS.

BADGE

Wanted for Beating Policeman Ward's

Divorced Wife to Death.

"Who are you?" asked Capt. Byan.

'I'm Michael O'Connell," the man re

The detective also took Mrs. Ellen Lally, said O'Connell to the Cantain.

STEPHANI'S VIGTIM SINKING.

Ex-Judge Reynolds's Condition Almost Hopeless To-Day.

The Young Murderer a Cool Spectator at the Tombs.

Smiling serenely at some witty remark of Lawyer Hummel. Alphonse Joseph Ste-phani stepped before Justice Gorman in the Tombs Police Court this morning and listened indifferently, with eyes uplifted to the ceiling, while an affidavit sworn to by James L. Butterly, charging him with having shot with intent to kill one Clinton G. Reynolds, a lawyer, at 59 Wall street, yesterday, was read by the court clerk. Stephani is a good-looking, well-iressed young man, with large coal-black eyes, black hair and an olive-tinted complexion. As he stood in the court-room, calm and apparently unconcerned, there was an air about him that commanded respect even from those who felt most bitter towards him for his wanton attack on Mr. Reynolds. His linen was fresh and clean and his attire litiess. Evidently he had taken great care prepare himself for the ordeal he was to prepare himself for the ordeal be was undergoing.

"You have heard the charge. What have you to say ?" asked the magistrate, and the prisoner turned inquiringly to Mr. Hummel, who said:

"I appear for the prisoner, and by my advice he has nothing to say at present."

Stephani nodded his head approvingly, and was committed to await the result of Mr. Reynolds's wound.

Before being sent to his cell Police Captain McLaughlin produced the pistol with which Stephani had shot the lawyer.

The crowd of reporters, policemen and clerks of Mr. Reynolds who stood around the prisoner surged foward to see the weapon, but the man who owned it never stirred a step.

the prisoner surged foward to see the weapon. But the man who owned it never stirred a step.

He gazed at it as it was held up to view, and displayed no interest whatever in the proceedings until the Captain opened a huge envelope containing about $1,000 in foreign money and letter of credit, and said:

"This package of money and these private papers are Stephanis. What disposition shall I make of them;"

"Return the money to him and keep the papers. They may be required in evidence," decreed the Justice, and Stephanis miled again as he put the money in his pocket. He was then sent to a cell downstairs.

On the way an Evenine World reporter stopped him and said:

"Mr. Stephani, have you any statement to make regarding the shooting of Mr. Reynolds, yesterday?"

Again a sunny smile spread across his systly, handsome face, and thanking the reporter have a good deal to say but my lawyer are I must not say it now.

Then he stepped briskly slong down the

"Then he stepped briskly slong down the dark stairway to the prison beneath.

Capt. McLaughlin said: "The case is one of the most mysterious with which I have ever had to deal.

"Stephani is a young man of intelligence. He is only twenty-five years old. When he was brought to the station-house yesterday he appeared dazed, but he would not say a word about the shooting. 'Did I shoot! I don't remember it, 'was the only answer I got out of him.

"He slept well in his cell last night, but absolutely refused to eat." No one seems to know just why the young Spaniard shot the lawyer, who is one of the oldest and weathless in the city.

Ex-Judge Reynolds only became acquainted with Mrs. Stephani about a year ago. She had recently lost her husband and she employed him to settle her husband's estate. He had been for many years engaged in the fruit importing business at 18t and 138 Cedar street.

When he died he let cash legacles amounting to about $10,000 apiece to each of his two sons, and the bulk of his cetate valued at $10,000 to his wife.

When he died he left cash legacies amounting to about $10,000 anject to each of his two sons, and the bulk of his estate valued at $100,000 to his wife.

Of this sum, it is alleged. Alphonse tried to rob his mother. He is said to be a grambler and a libertine, who would speedly have seent it in rictous living.

He did get control of some $50,000 in gilt-edged bonds and locked them in a box in the New York Safe-Deposit Company's vault at 140 Broadway.

It was to recover this sum $that Mrs. Heebhani employed Mr. Reynolds, and his section in the matter bred ill-feeling between the two men.

Two mounts ago mother and son had a violent quarrel about the bonds, during which, it is said, he struck her.

He could notiget the bonds as Lawyer Reynolds had secured an injunction restraining him. After the quarrel with his mother Siephani fied to Europe, returning Wednesday night on the City of New York. He went to the St. Denis Hotel, and early yesterday morning presented himself at Mr. Reynolds's office seeking the interview which sended in the tracedy.

During his absence his mother had changed her residence. Her whereabouts are still kept servet. Members of her late husband's firm believe she is in Philadeiphia Whether she remains in concealment by her lawyer's advice or not is not known, but almost the first question which Stephani put to Lawyer Reynolds was: 'Wherejs my mother?'

At the Chambers Street Hospital, whither nother?"

At the Chambers Street Hospital, whither he was removed after the shoeting. Mr. Reynolds was in a critical condition this forenoon. He was unconscious. The bullet is buried somewhere just beneath the heart. His wife came from their home in Orange. N. J., yesterday, and has been by his bedside ever since.

Dr. Stimson. of the New York Hospital staff, is also in constant attendance, but he has made no effort to extract the bullet yet.

The patient is too weak." he said this morning.

The patient is too west. It is not morning.

The doctors have a slight hope of his recovery, but his chances are mighty few and slim. It is feared now that blood-poisoning will set in, in which event his case will be utterly hopeless.

DILWORTH CHOATE FREE.

Pleads Guilty to the Indictment, and Pays a Light Fine.

Dilworth Choate appeared before Judge Barrett in Oper and Terminer this forencen and pleaded guiliy to the indictment charsing him with invaling the Flack jury-room.

Judge Barrett said that on account of the benalty which had already been indicted, wand also that his term of imprisonment had been carried beyond the regular time mentioned by the Court, and further that the accused had paid the fine which the sentence carried with it, the Court felt satisfied that is would be quite sufficient to accept the plea offered and impose a fine of $10.

Mr. Choose left the court surrounded by a number of friends, who were rejoiced to see him finally a free man. Sarrett in Oyer and Terminer this forencon

A Little Fever shness Among the Bulls and Bears.

O. T. Scored the Highest Price of the Year.

Rumors of a Gigantic Rallroad Deal.

There were never-theless a few mighty strong stocks to-day. notably O. T., Reading, Union Pacific, St. Paul, Lake Shore and Pullman Palace.

London was a factor, taking round amounts of Reading, Atchison and Union Pacific, the purchases for foreign account being estimated at about fifty thousand In some quarters the jump in Reading was attributed to the rumored deal looking to a close union of interests between that Company, the Jersey Central, the Baltimore and he Richmond Terminal. If such a scheme is caeried through it the Richmond Terminal.

If such a scheme is caeried through it would make a system of some ten thousand miles, but it is a huge undertaking and may never be consummated.

Pullman Palace was the banner stock of the day in point of advance, selling as high as 200. The stock has been listed abroad, and the Room had it that another "melon" would soon be cut.

In the arternoon Sugar Rofineries made one of its characteristic jumps, and as this indicated a reawakening of the bull forces, speculation again took on a buoyant tone mear the close.

O. T. was a prime favorite and scored the highest price of the year.

Money lent up to 10 per cent., brokers as usual on Friday having had to make as rangements for the three days until Monday. The bulk of the business, however, was at 0 a 7.

The total number of listed stocks sold at the Stock Exchange to-day was 467,000 ahares.

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS.

THE CLOSING QUOTATI Commercial Cable
Con. (148.
Del. Lack & West
Del. Lack & West
Delaware & Hudson
Densver & Rio Grande,
Densver & Rio Grande,
Dens M. & Fr. D. pfd.
Dis. & Cattle Food T
Edison Gen. Elec.
T. T. & Ga. & Ga.
T. T. & Ga. del pfd.
Tread North pfd.
Houston & Peans
Con Constitution of Peans
Con Control of Control
Con Con Control
Con Control
Con Control
Con Control
Con Control
Con Cont NAME OF THE PARTY Ormon Short Lane.
Pantine Mail.
Pipe Line certificates.
Pinila & Konding.
Peo. Dec. & Evana
No. L. & Dec. Dec. Beo.
St. Panil & Omania
No. L. & Ban F.
St. L. & Ban F.
Toxas Pacific
Toxas P

William Control of the Control of th

Mining Stocks.

for mining stocks at the Consolidated Ex-

the Accused Broker.

Wreckers Tried to Dupe Him.

the Lenox Hill Bank, sot under way this finally been secured.

long before the hour for the opening of the less feverishness in Court, and all the standing room in the rear the railway and mis- of the benches had been seized upon by late he then possessed.

Pell was engaged to conduct the negotiations for purchasing the Equitable and Lenox Hill banks, because he was familiar with all the devicus methods of financiering necessary to success in the venture. Simmons knew of his ability in doing this kind of work, and knowing that he himself was unequal to the task, the services of Pell wars secured.

mons crowd were perfectly sound and solvent, fell into the clutches of the wreckers.

Evidence in the Classen Trial. District-Attorney Mitchell called James S. Thurston, Secretary of the American Loan

"Peli had a general authority to sign the name of our firm to any papers except checks, although he was not a member of the firm, and he negotiated for that ioan, although we had not requested or suggested 1726 t."

Judge Benedict gasped for breath.

Do you want us to understand that Pell had general authority to borrow any amount or sum of money he desired in the name of the firm ?" saked Judge Benedict.
Rilduff nodded a cool affirmative.

Resolutions Against the Grade Crossing and N. Y. Central Bills. The Board of Street Openings, consisting of Mayor Grant, Commissioner of Public of Mayor Grant, Commissioner of Public Works Gilroy, Comptroller Myers and Park 100 resolutions protesting against the "Grade to Crossing" bill and the Ives bill, silowing the New York Central Railroad Company to Cose One Hundred and Twenty-sixth, One Hundred and Twenty-seventh and One Hundred and Crossings bill is the act which allows the New York. New Haven and Hartford Railroad to cut off almost the cuty at Port Morris. Works Gilroy, Comptroller Myers and Park

Dominion Parliament Prorogued. OTTAWA. Ont., May 18.—The Governor-General to-day prorogued the Dominion

Parliament. He made an eloquent address, full of friendly references to the United Fair and a Warmer Saturday.

Average for past twenty-four hours, 65 1-9 degrees.
Average for corresponding time last year, 719; degrees.

Scorohing Opening Speech Against Thirty-Six People Drowned in the River Oder, Silesia.

Robert B. Roosevelt Tells How the Arrest of a Child-Strangler-The Prague Labor Troubles.

> INTECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD. BERLIN, May 16. - Thirty-six people are reported drawned in the River Oder, near Ratibor, Silesia.

They were passengers on a ferry-boat which capsized in mid-stream. Others were rescued by parties which put out from the shores.

Labor Negotiations in Prague. VIENNA, May 16, -The men on strike in Prague are in negotiation with their employ rs for a settlement of the labor strife.

Their committee demand 30 per cent, in crease of wages and nine hours as the limit of a day's work.

These terms, which are a modification those previously insisted upon, will prob ably be agreed to by the proprietors. mous Barrel.

IDUNLAP CABLE NEWS SPRCIAL. COPENHAGEN, May 16.—The body of the murdered messenger, Meyer, which was iscovered in a barrel at the New York Custom-House and shipped back to Copenhagen, having arrived, the officers of the Criminal Court are besieged by keepers of muse ums, who wish to buy the barrel. Some managers from Hamburg offered as high as $3.000 The barrel will be sold to the highes Germany's Demand for the Gres

American Hog. IDUNEAP CAPLE NEWS SPECIAL I HAMBURG, May 16.—The owners of the Export Slaughter warehouses here have decided not to reopen them, as the importa-tion of pork from Denmark is not sufficient to warrant the step.

It seems evident that the supply of pork from Denmark and Hungary alone is not abundant enough to meet the German denand, and that the removal of the present nterdict on the American article is imperatively demanded.

Kossuth's Critical State of Health IDUNEAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL ! Bealin, May 16, -From private letters reeived here it is learned that Kossuth, wh has long been alling, is now in a really criti-cal condition, and that grave fears are en-tertained for his life. A Strangler of Young Children.

INT CAPLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.I BERLIN, May 16.—The police have arested a servant girl, who is charged wit having decoyed young children, stuffed heir mouths with earth so they could make no outery, and then strangled them. She gives no reason for her crimes, seen to be unconscious of their enormity and is adifferent to the consequences Medical experts pronounce it a case of omicidal mania.

Lawyer Newton Pleads Guilty. Int Cable to the Press News association.)

London. May 16.—Newton, the lawyer the assisted in the escape of witnesses and others concerned in the West End Club scandal, thus defeating the ends of justice pleaded guilty to-day.

Sentence was deferred until Tuesday. Newton's decision not to make any de- present to act as his bondsmen

PRESBYTERIES FOR REVISION.

132 of Them Vote That Way and but 66 Against It.

SARATOGA. May 16.—In the General Presbyterian Assembly to-day the clerk reported 132 Presbyteries voting for revision, 66 against, 7 non-committal, 6 not heard from. The report was referred to a special committee, including the Rev. Messrs. Francis . Patton. Princeton; Maurice D. Edwards, St. Paul: Henry M. McCracken, New York. and James D. Thornton, San Francisco. Baseball To-Day.

New York and Brooklyn have live profes tional games to divide themselves among The schedule: PLAYERS' LEAGUE. Suffaio at New York. thicago at Brooklyn. Seveland at Boston. Pitteburg at Phila. NATIONAL LEAGUE. Cloveland at New York Pittebury at Brooklyn. Chicago at Boaton. Cincinnati at Phila.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION Columbus as Rochosser. Howark at Washingon. Louisrille at Ffalia.

3. Louis at Syracass. Wilmight at Saltimore Wilmight at Saltimore Percentages this morning of clubs in as leading leagues:

A Bishop's Wife Dies on the Cienfuegos. Mrs. Mary E. Churton, wife of the Lord

Only Nine, and Selling a Horse. Nine-year-old Willie Mangle was at the Tombs to-day, charged with stealing a horse vision deales of 21 Spring street. He was caught trying to sell the horse. Mr. Gerry's agent took him.

the Excise Commissioners

General Sessions.

Museum Managers to Bid for a Fa- They Denounce It as a Political Neg'ect of Duly.

The Grand Jury yesterday returned tru-Meakim, Edward T. Fitzpatrick and Joseph Koch for neglect of duty as public officials. By section 154 of the Penal Code this i nade a misdemeanor.

Following is the section under which th nembers of the Board were indicted : Section 154. Omission of duty by public officer, where any duty is or shall be enjoined by law upor any public officer or upon any person holding a public trust or employment, every wifful emission to perform such duty, where no special provision shall have been made for the punishment of such

The neglect charged is a failure on the part of the Commissioners to pay any at-Club regarding liquor-selling on election each Commissioner. Should they be convicted they would be imprisonment, $500 fine, or both such fine and imprisonment. To-day Commissioners Koch and Fitzpatrick were apprehended and arraigned before Judge Fitzgerald in Part I. of the Court of General Sessions to plead to the

He was very wroth, and considered his in lictment as mere political persecution. Commissioner Meakim, who but recently recovered from a severe illness is convalescing in the South. He will be arrested on his return to the city. The presence of the two Excise Com-missioners in the court-room accompanied by ex-Judge Charles Donohus and parole the defendants in the custody of their counsel until to-morrow," said Judge 25 MINERS DEAD OUT OF 29. Fitzgerald.

"I want to be discharged on my own recognizance, said Commissioner Roch in a loud tone, as he brased himself against

Monday's Meeting.

Monday's session of the Passett Investigation Committee will be held as usual in the and wagon belonging to Edward Cole, pro- room of Part II. of the Superior Court. vision dealer of 21 Spring street. He was caught trying to sell the horse. Mr. Gerry's agent took film.

Banker McLean's Funeral.

Hundreds of prominent banking and insurance men attended the funeral to day of the Committee and incleased several blank aubpoones in case he desired to summon anyons to testify before the Committee.

Koch and Fitzpatrick Arraigned in

O'CONNELL GAVE HIMSELF UP.

A Young Wife Leaps from a Window to Escape Flames.

Mrs. Mary Vandermerwede, a young wife death this morning.

and Twenty-eighth street, she deliberately ignited one and set fire in different places to the bedding on which she was resting.

As the blaze grew apace she laughed gleefully, until the flames bemmed her in on all sharply. sides and threatened to consume her. Then she seemed to realize the awful fate plied, which menaced her, and with a shrick of despair that startled every tenant in the building, sprang from the burning bed and before any of her friends, who were in an outer room, could prevent her, she rushed to an open window and plunged out head foremost.

to an open window and plunged out head foremost.

She save one more scream during the descent from the third floor window and then struck with a crash on the flagged sidewalk below.

There she lay, bruised and mangled. Her flesh and benes were still shivering from the force of the fearful shock when her friends and every other lumate in the house poured out and surrounded her, but life was extinct. of 617 Second avenue, to the Coroner's office and arraigned her for complicity is

The Coroner gave it as his opinion that death was instantaneous.

Strong men bore the poor bruised body back into the house, and laid it again on the bed which she had fired only a few moments her to live with him, and they have passed

This morning six more of the forty-four

Jersey City election officers against whom warrants were issued on charges of ballot box stuffing, appeared before Judge Lippincott and entered into bonds to answer. They were: John Dayking, Oliver G. String, William Stavens, Lawrence Costigan, William Stavens, Lawrence Costigan, William Stavens, and John Byrns.

CASTAWAYI O

Eleve Made Judge Morrow Hustle at the Finish.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACE, May 16.—As is usual after Handicap day everything returns to its usual quietness and the talent heavily yesterday.

days they generally have according to the from from crowd is so large that it prevents them from getting around to get the tipe, and even getting around to like one independ which they have to play their own judgment w generally goes for naught. There was a fairly good crowd pre-duced by numerous scratches.

Kempiand was the good thing for the him stretch his neck at the finish

as man and wife for some time.

Three weeks ago they moved to 301 East SECOND BACE.

ce. Eleve cut out the found the article concealed in a closet, where the young man must have hidden them himself while sleep-walking.

He had not been shioroformed. Edition and Sporting Extra, nor to apply at Voohis's Sortie on Power To-Night, the counting-room for Everyse World score-cards.

Results of Chicago Baces.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Stakes in an Easy Manner.

Several well-known betters say that on his days they generally have hard luck as the day, but they were lost to sight in comparison with that of yesterday. The track was heavy, and the small fields were further reopening event, and won easily.

The talent pounded Judge Morrow hard in the second race, sending him to the a 2 to 5 chance. He wone but Eleve n

Sweepstakes for all ages, at $20 each, with $1,000 added; six furiouss.

Starters,
Raymond G....
Golden Reel.
Lotton.
Clay Stockton.
Bolinda.
Tanner.
Zephyrus
Guy Gray

The Voorhis Democracy, which has been organized in eighteen of the Assembly Districts of the city, will to-night, in the per-

The following were the closing quotate Mr. Choate left the cours surrounded by a number of friends, who were rejoiced to see him finally a free man.

Ex-Judge Drummond Dead.

Ispectat to the systeme words.

Chicado, May 16.—Ex-Judge Thomas Drummond, of the United States Circuit Rancollean, III. He was eighty years old.

ALL POLITICAL CLURS

Dught to get THE WORLD to-moreow and post their mambers on the laws which will gevern the next limits.

Legisland Company of the system of the system of the laws which will gevern the next limits. The laws which will gevern the next limits.

Company of the laws of the laws of the laws which will gevern the next limits.

Legisland Company of the laws of the laws which will gevern the next limits.

Company of the laws of the laws of the laws which will gevern the next limits. change to-day :

The trial of George H. Fell, on the charge of stealing $31,000 in bonds belonging to morning in Part III. of the General Sessions before Recorder Smyth, a jury having

Every seat in the room had been taken of the benches had been seized upon by late collaneous speculation to-day, the market having felt the effect of the recent heavy realizations. Of course this was to be expected, and the conditions may prevail until the stocks just sold find a resting place. When the time arrives the bull leaders will be ready to go ahead again.

There were never-were secured.

Pell, he said, was practically the chief conspirator in the bank-wrecking syndicate, because it was due to his skill in managing the negotiations that there institutions, which up to the time of their transfer to the Simand Trust Company, of 113 Broadway, as

GRANT JOINS IN THE PROTEST.

WASHINGTON, May

For Eastern New York, fairweather, westerly winds, sta-tionary tempera-ture; warmer Sat-urday. The weather to-day, as indicated by Blakely's tele-ther-

> Bishop of Nassau, West Indies, died on the steamer Cienfueges twelve hours before the vessel's arrival here this morning. She was on her way here with her husband.

BIG MEN INDICTED

Accused of Misdemeaner.

Charged by the Reform Club with Criminal

Outrage and Give Ball.

New York's Board of Excise has been inlicted. ills against Commissioners Alexander

Day. Three separate cases are made out again liable to a maximum penalty of one year's ndictments. Commissioner Roch was heard to remark. as he entered the court-house, that he would go to the Tombs rather than give bail.

their counsel, Alderman Andrew A. Noonan and Clerk Jerry Hayes, of Essex Market when discovered, and had caused no dam-fence is a great relief to many persons, as he had it in his power to make damaging disclosures. It is believed his punishment will be merely nominal.

Judge Donohue informed the Court that his elient would plead not guilty to the charge, with the provision that the plea might be modified when opportunity had affected, and it is feared that she will lose

Michael O'Connell, accused of beating of barely twenty-one years, met an awful Mrs. Julia Ward, of 301 East Thirty-third street, inflicting injuries which resulted in Picking up a box of matches from a table her death, walked into the East Thirty-fift. ear her bedside, at 111 West One Hundred street station shortly before 1 o'clock this morning. Capt. Hyan was behind the desk.
"I understand you are looking for me,

Capt. Ryan paddled out from behind the desk in a hurry and grabbed the young man before he answered: "I do want you. O'Connell was locked up, and this morn ing Detective McCarthy arraigned him before Coroner Levy.

Mrs. Julia Ward died yesterday morning was extinct.

A man ran for a doctor and met Coroner Schultage on Seventh avenue.

He brought him to the house, but the unfortimate youn; woman was beyond any human assistance. Her head was split, her broasts were forn and her lower limbs broken. at eight o'clock. She was the divorced wife of Policeman Ward, of the East Eightyeighth street police station. She had six children by him, and when she left him two years ago she went to live with her father and mother. There she me young Michael O'Connell, who persuaded

Thirty-third street. There were frequent quarrels between them, the tenants of the and Clerk Jerry Hayes, of Essex Market Police Court, excited a great deal of comment from the crowd assembled, and it was a great surprise to all when they were arraigned at the bar as criminals.

Commissioner Fitzpatrick was not so anxious to pose as a martyr by going to the Tombs and Messrs. Noonan and Hayes were present to act as his bondsmen. ouse say, but the climax was not reached antil Sunday night. What happened then was told to an Even-ING WORLD reporter this morning by Mrs. King, the housekeeper.
"About midnight Sunday my husband and I were aroused by fearful acreams."
said she. "They were from Mrs. Ward's

The Full Horror of the Wilkes to resconfigance, "said Commissioner Roch in a loud tone, as he brased himself against the railing trying to steady himself, for he appeared to be rather weak in the knees.

"Silence," said Judge Fitzgerald, as he rapped emphatically on his desk.

"Is this decision final?" roared Commissioner Roch.

He violently pounded the desk at his side with his fist.

He violently pounded the desk at his side with his fist.

Commissioner Roch was very mad, and he talked to himself all the way downstairs as he was being led by two of his friends to the Bond Clerk's office.

A number of the friends of the Commissioners, who had heard of their indictment, were on hand to say bear had not been made out or the bondsmen aunounced.

Fitspatrick's bondsman was J. J. Me

Twenty-first Precinct. An investigation fol-iowed, with the above result.
Deputy Coroner Weston will make an an-topsy and, pending his report, Mrs. Lally and O'Connell are held. Both vehemently deny that they ever struck the woman.

o'clock the papers had not been made out or the bondsmen announced.
Fitspatick's bondsman was J. J. McDonough, and Koch's J. F. Bishon.
The three indictments found against the Excise Commissioners are based respectis very upon the cases of Henry Ahren, of A venne A. William That of East Reventieth as treet, and John P. Schaupisin, of 328
Third sevens, saloon keepers, against whom Charges were brought by the City Reform
Club, and which the Board of Excise refused to entertain.
In the dead fines and the three were plainly guilty of neglect of duty, and upon this opinion the present criminal proceedings were based.

IVINS INVITES THE MAYOR.

Grant May Summon Witnessee for Monday's Meeting.

SIX MORE GIVE BAIL.

of the Committee and inclosed several blank strong, Lawrence Costing will be consisted to summon anyone to testify before the Committee.

String William Stevens, Lawrence Costing of the city will to-night in the persons of Assemblyman John Martin and examples to testify before the Committee.

String William Stevens, Lawrence Costing of Assemblyman John Martin and examples to testify before the Committee.

String William Stevens, Lawrence Costing of Assemblyman John Martin and examples of Chicago Haces, assemblyman John Martin and examples of Chicago Haces

TRACK HEAVY-CROWD SMALL